Dear Ms. Krishnan:

This is the Defense Intelligence Agency's (DIA) eighth and final interim response regarding your Freedom of Information Act litigation in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, civil action number 18-cv-01129. This case encompasses your request for records pertaining to (1) NDAs imposing prepublication review obligations; (2) administrative appeals on prepub determinations; (3) sanctions for failure to comply with prepub review obligations.

A search of DIA's systems of records located 150 records responsive to the request. This response addresses three documents that were located in that search.

Upon review, I have determined that portions of two documents must be withheld in part from disclosure pursuant to the FOIA. The withheld portions are exempt from release pursuant to Exemptions 3 and 6 of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(3) and (b)(6). Exemption 3 applies to information specifically exempted by a statute establishing particular criteria for withholding. The applicable statutes are 10 U.S.C. § 424, 50 U.S.C. § 3024(i) and 50 U.S.C. § 3507. Statute 10 U.S.C. § 424 protects the identity of DIA employees, the organizational structure of the agency, and any function of DIA. Statute 50 U.S.C. § 3024(i) protects intelligence sources and methods. Statute 50 U.S.C. § 3507 protects CIA information and functions. Exemption 6 protects information which if released would constitute an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of other individuals.

Finally, I have determined that all substantive portions of the remaining document must be withheld in full from disclosure pursuant to the FOIA. The withheld portions are exempt from release pursuant to Exemptions 3, 4, and 6 of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(3), (b)(4), and (b)(6). Exemption 4 applies to information such as trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person on a privileged or confidential basis.

Sincerely,

Brian L. Jenkins
